

Middle East A FUSION OF TIMELESS HISTORY

Timeless Echoes: Walk
Through Living History

Golden Sands:
Mysteries of the Desert

Vibrant Cultures: A
Journey Beyond Borders

ISRAEL LAND OF ANCIENT HISTORY

A land where ancient history meets modern spirit, and every meal tells a story

Food Scene (A Culinary Adventure for Your Taste Buds)

- Falafel Feast: Crunchy on the outside, soft on the inside, falafel is Israel's national snack. Pair it with tahini and enjoy a bite of heaven!
- Shawarma Sensation: Whether it's chicken, lamb, or beef, shawarma served in pita is a must-try—packed with flavor and street-food energy.
- Hummus Heaven: The debate over the best hummus in Israel is real, and honestly, every place serves it like it's their specialty. Don't miss out on this creamy, garlicky delight!
- Jachnun & Malawach: Traditional Yemeni pastries that are flaky and savory, perfect for a unique breakfast experience.
- Israeli Salad: Fresh, crisp, and oh-so-refreshing. The mix of cucumber, tomato, and herbs is the perfect side dish to any meal.
- Dead Sea Salt & Spa Products: Take home skincare products made from the famous Dead Sea minerals. Your skin will thank you!

Things to Do (History, Spirituality, and Adventure)

- Jerusalem: The Holy City: Explore the sacred sites—The Western Wall, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and the Dome of the Rock. The spiritual vibe of Jerusalem is unlike any other city.
- Dead Sea: Float effortlessly in the mineral-rich waters of the Dead Sea. Don't forget to cover yourself in the healing mud—it's an experience!
- Tel Aviv Beaches: Soak up the sun on Tel Aviv's golden beaches or dive into the city's trendy coastal scene. The beach bars are perfect for sunset cocktails.
- Masada: Hike to this ancient desert fortress and enjoy stunning panoramic views. The sunrise here is unforgettable!
- Acre (Akko): Discover the rich history of this UNESCO World Heritage city, known for its ancient Crusader-era buildings and vibrant market.
- Eilat: For the diving and snorkeling enthusiasts, Eilat's coral reefs are some of the most beautiful in the world.
- Caesarea National Park: Marvel at the ancient Roman ruins, including a restored amphitheater and impressive aqueducts along the Mediterranean coast.

Shopping (From Souks to Luxury)

What to Buy:

- Dead Sea Products: Skincare from the famous salt and mud.
- Israeli Wine: Israel's wine scene is booming, so grab a bottle (or two) of award-winning local wine.
- Traditional Ceramics: Colorful pottery and handmade goods from Jerusalem and surrounding areas.
- Israeli Jewelry: Find unique pieces inspired by ancient and modern Israeli culture.
- Spices: Visit the markets and pick up za'atar, sumac, and other Middle Eastern spice blends.

Where to Shop:

- Mahane Yehuda Market (Jerusalem): A bustling market perfect for fresh produce, spices, and local snacks.
- Carmel Market (Tel Aviv): A vibrant market filled with food, clothes, and crafts.
- Dizengoff Street (Tel Aviv): High-end boutiques and trendy fashion stores.
- Jaffa Flea Market (Tel Aviv): Vintage shops and local artisan stalls

EXTRA SPRINKLES

- Israel's Love for Falafel: Israelis claim to have invented falafel. You'll hear locals argue about the “best” spot to get it—join the debate and try as many as you can!
- The Dead Sea: The lowest point on Earth! Take a dip and feel like you're floating in a salty, soothing oasis.
- Shabbat (The Day of Rest): Many shops and restaurants close from Friday evening to Saturday evening, as this is Israel's holy day of rest.
- Israel's Public Transport: The buses and trains are efficient, and you'll find a friendly vibe in the cities, especially in Tel Aviv.
- National Parks: Israel is home to a staggering number of beautiful national parks—perfect for hiking and exploring nature.

Logistics (The Need-to-Know Stuff)

- Currency: Israeli Shekel (ILS). Approx. 1 USD = 3.8 ILS.
- Driving Rules: Drive on the right. Israel has a good public transport system, but renting a car is ideal for exploring more remote areas.
- Self-Driving: You can rent a car with a valid International Driving Permit (IDP). Be aware of local driving regulations, like speed limits and parking rules.
- Who Can Drive: Visitors from many countries, including the U.S. and EU, can drive with an IDP. Always verify specific requirements based on your nationality.
- Credit Cards & ATMs: Credit cards are widely accepted. ATMs are easy to find in cities. Make sure to notify your bank before traveling to avoid any issues.
- Time Zone: Israel Standard Time (IST), UTC +2.
- Dialing Code: +972.

Ready to immerse yourself in Israel’s rich history, spiritual beauty, and world-renowned cuisine?

Holidayz Hub is here to create the perfect itinerary for your adventure. From floating in the Dead Sea to exploring Jerusalem’s sacred wonders, Holidayz Hub ensures your Israeli experience is unforgettable!

Best Time to Visit

- Spring (March to May): The weather is pleasant, with blooming flowers and clear skies—ideal for sightseeing and outdoor adventures.
- Autumn (September to November): Perfect temperatures for exploring Israel’s rich history and beaches without the summer heat.
- Winter (December to February): If you love mild winter weather, this is the time to visit for a peaceful and relaxing escape.
- Summer (June to August): Be prepared for the heat, but summer is the best time for beach lovers and those wanting to experience Israel’s vibrant festivals.

JORDAN JOURNEY THROUGH ANCIENT WONDERS

A land of ancient marvels, desert adventures, and warm hospitality

Food Scene (Flavors as Rich as the History)

- Falafel & Hummus: You can't visit Jordan without trying these Middle Eastern staples. Dip your crispy falafel into smooth, creamy hummus for an authentic taste of Jordanian cuisine.
- Mansaf: The national dish of Jordan! A rich lamb stew served over rice and topped with yogurt and almonds—it's a flavorful feast you'll never forget.
- Shawarma: Grilled to perfection and served with tahini, this street food classic is a must-try for anyone who loves savory, spiced meats.
- Knafeh: Sweet, cheesy, and irresistibly delicious. This traditional dessert made with phyllo dough and sugar syrup is a treat for your sweet tooth.
- Jordanian Sweets: Make sure to try Basbousa (semolina cake) and Baklava (layers of flaky pastry with nuts and syrup). You'll find these delights in every local bakery.
- Bedouin Tea: Take a sip of traditional Bedouin tea while you're in the desert, prepared over an open fire. It's sweet, fragrant, and perfect after a day of adventure.

Things to Do (Adventure Awaits at Every Turn)

- Petra: The Rose City, carved into the cliffs of southern Jordan, is a wonder of the ancient world. Walk through the Siq to reach the breathtaking Treasury, and explore tombs, temples, and more.
- Wadi Rum: Known as the Valley of the Moon, this desert landscape looks otherworldly. Go on a jeep tour, spend a night in a Bedouin camp, and stargaze under a sky filled with constellations.
- Dead Sea: Float effortlessly in the salt-rich waters of the Dead Sea. This natural wonder is the lowest point on Earth, offering a one-of-a-kind experience.
- Amman: Jordan's vibrant capital is filled with historical sites, from the Citadel to the Roman Theater. Stroll through the bustling souks, and enjoy a cup of Arabic coffee at a local café.
- The Jordan River: Visit the baptismal site of Jesus Christ, an important pilgrimage location for Christians, and reflect in the peaceful atmosphere of the river.
- Mount Nebo: The biblical site where Moses is said to have seen the Promised Land. The views over the Jordan Valley and the Dead Sea are absolutely stunning.
- Aqaba: For beach lovers and divers, Aqaba's coral reefs and crystal-clear waters are perfect for snorkeling and diving adventures.

Shopping (Souvenirs Straight from the Heart of Jordan)

What to Buy:

- Jordanian Pottery: Handcrafted pottery, often painted with traditional designs, makes for a beautiful and authentic souvenir.
- Bedouin Rugs: Colorful, woven rugs that are perfect for adding a touch of Jordanian culture to your home.
- Dead Sea Mud & Salt Products: Bring home skincare products made from the minerals of the Dead Sea—it's great for your skin!
- Jordanian Spices: Stock up on za'atar, sumac, and other spices to recreate the flavors of Jordan at home.
- Silver Jewelry: Intricate, handmade silver jewelry, often featuring gemstones like turquoise, is a staple of Jordanian craftsmanship.

Where to Shop:

- Souk Jara (Amman): A lively market filled with local handicrafts, fresh produce, and delicious street food.
- Rainbow Street (Amman): This trendy street is home to boutiques, cafes, and art galleries perfect for shopping and people-watching.
- Wadi Musa (near Petra): Pick up souvenirs like pottery, jewelry, and Bedouin goods near Petra.
- Aqaba Souk: A great place to find local spices, crafts, and beachwear.

EXTRA SPRINKLES

- A
- Jordan's Hospitality: The people of Jordan are known for their warmth and hospitality. You'll often be invited for a cup of tea or a chat—embrace the local culture!
 - Ancient History Everywhere: Jordan is a treasure trove of ancient ruins. Whether it's the Roman ruins in Jerash or the Nabatean ruins in Petra, you'll be stepping back in time at every turn
 - The Desert Adventures: Wadi Rum isn't just for sightseeing—join a camel caravan or go on a thrilling jeep tour for a true desert adventure.
 - Jordanian Music: You'll hear the haunting sounds of the oud (a traditional instrument) and other Middle Eastern music wherever you go

Logistics (The Practical Stuff!)

- Currency: Jordanian Dinar (JOD). Approx. 1 USD = 0.71 JOD.
- Driving Rules: Drive on the right. If you're planning to explore beyond the main cities, renting a car is highly recommended.
- Self-Driving: Renting a car is easy with an International Driving Permit (IDP). Be cautious with local driving conditions and traffic rules.
- Who Can Drive: Visitors from many countries, including the U.S. and the EU, can drive with an IDP. Make sure to check your specific country's requirements.
- Credit Cards & ATMs: Major credit cards are accepted in hotels, larger shops, and restaurants. ATMs are plentiful, especially in Amman.
- Time Zone: Jordan Time (GMT+3).
- Dialing Code: +962.

Ready to experience the magic of Jordan?

From the ancient wonders of Petra to the desert landscapes of Wadi Rum, Holidayz Hub is here to design your perfect Jordanian getaway. Whether you're exploring the history of Amman or floating in the Dead Sea, Holidayz Hub will guide you every step of the way

Best Time to Visit

- Spring (March to May): The weather is pleasant, and the desert blooms with vibrant wildflowers—perfect for sightseeing and outdoor activities.
- Autumn (September to November): Temperatures are mild, making it an ideal time to explore Petra, Wadi Rum, and the Dead Sea.
- Winter (December to February): If you don't mind cooler temperatures, this is the best time for hiking in Petra and visiting historical sites without the crowds.
- Summer (June to August): While it can be quite hot, summer is perfect for a relaxing stay by the Dead Sea or at Aqaba's beaches.

OMAN PERFECT BLEND OF ANCIENT TRADITIONS

A journey through timeless landscapes, rich traditions, and incredible hospitality

Food Scene (Taste the Heart of Omani Cuisine)

- Shuwa: The national dish of Oman, slow-cooked lamb or goat, marinated with spices and wrapped in palm leaves. A flavor-packed delight!
- Mashuai: A traditional dish made of fish, rice, and a spicy sauce, often served in a festive setting.
- Omani Halwa: Sweet, sticky, and spiced to perfection. This dense, gelatinous treat is a must-try, often made with ghee, nuts, and rosewater.
- Khubz: Omani flatbread, perfect for dipping in hummus or enjoying with your meal.
- Dates: Oman is famous for its dates, and you'll find varieties to suit every taste. Don't miss out on trying the local dates paired with Omani coffee.
- Omani Coffee (Kahwa): A fragrant blend of coffee brewed with spices like cardamom and saffron, often served in small cups with dates.

Things to Do (Adventure Awaits in Every Corner of Oman)

- Muscat: The capital city is home to majestic mosques, traditional markets (souks), and stunning coastal views. The Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque is a must-see, and the Royal Opera House is perfect for culture lovers.
- Wahiba Sands: Experience the vast desert, where you can take a thrilling 4x4 adventure or ride camels across the golden dunes. Spend a night in a traditional Bedouin camp and enjoy stargazing under the clear desert sky.
- Nizwa: Explore the ancient Nizwa Fort and vibrant souk in one of Oman's oldest cities. This place is steeped in history and offers an insight into Omani culture.
- Jebel Akhdar: Known as the "Green Mountain," this area offers scenic hikes, terraced farms, and beautiful views over the Al Hajar mountains.
- Dhofar: Head to the southern region of Oman, known for its monsoon rains and lush landscapes. Visit Salalah for its tropical climate, frankincense trees, and stunning beaches.
- Bimmah Sinkhole: A natural wonder! This beautiful, deep sinkhole filled with turquoise water is perfect for swimming and picnics.
- Wadi Shab: Hike through lush greenery to discover crystal-clear pools in this hidden oasis surrounded by dramatic cliffs and waterfalls.

Shopping (Discover Omani Treasures)

What to Buy:

- Frankincense: Oman is the world's largest producer of frankincense. Pick up some resin or frankincense-based products for an aromatic souvenir.
- Silver Jewelry: Omani silver is renowned for its intricate designs. You'll find everything from traditional pieces to modern styles in the markets.
- Omani Pottery: Traditional hand-painted pottery and ceramics make for a colorful and authentic gift.
- Khanjar: The Omani dagger, often beautifully engraved, is an iconic souvenir of the country's culture and heritage.
- Handwoven Fabrics: Locally woven textiles such as scarves and shawls make beautiful, practical souvenirs.

Where to Shop:

- Muttrah Souq (Muscat): One of the oldest markets in Oman, offering everything from spices to traditional jewelry and frankincense.
- Nizwa Souq: Famous for silverware, textiles, and handicrafts, Nizwa Souq offers an authentic shopping experience.
- Salalah Souq: Explore the southern region's unique markets for frankincense, perfumes, and locally made crafts.
- Al Araiimi Boulevard Mall (Muscat): For modern shopping, head to this upscale mall for luxury brands and international retailers.

EXTRA SPRINKLES

- A
- Wadis & Mountains: Oman is full of wadi (valley) hikes, where you can explore crystal-clear waters, towering cliffs, and hidden oases—perfect for nature lovers.
 - Oman's Conservation Efforts: The country is dedicated to preserving its rich natural and cultural heritage. Oman's wildlife, from the Arabian Oryx to sea turtles, is protected in its national parks and reserves.
 - Oman's Hospitality: Omani people are known for their generous hospitality. You'll likely be offered a cup of coffee or dates as a welcoming gesture wherever you go.
 - The Frankincense Trail: Oman is the birthplace of frankincense, and the ancient trade routes that once carried it around the world are still part of Oman's cultural fabric today.

Logistics (What You Need to Know)

- Currency: Omani Rial (OMR). Approx. 1 USD = 0.38 OMR.
- Driving Rules: Drive on the right. Oman has a well-developed road system, and renting a car is an excellent way to explore the country's stunning landscapes.
- Self-Driving: An International Driving Permit (IDP) is required along with your home-country driver's license.
- Who Can Drive: Visitors from most countries, including the U.S. and Europe, can drive with an IDP. Check ahead to confirm requirements.
- Credit Cards & ATMs: Credit cards (Visa, MasterCard) are accepted in most urban areas. ATMs are widely available, especially in Muscat.
- Time Zone: Gulf Standard Time (GST), UTC +4.
- Dialing Code: +968.

Ready to discover the secrets of Oman?

From the stunning landscapes of Wahiba Sands to the ancient city of Nizwa, Holidayz Hub is here to design your perfect Omani adventure. Whether you're hiking in the mountains or shopping for local treasures, Holidayz Hub will guide you through the best Oman has to offer.

Best Time to Visit

- Autumn (October to November): The temperatures are more comfortable, and it's the perfect time to explore the desert and mountains.
- Spring (March to May): Ideal for hiking and visiting cultural sites, as the weather is pleasant throughout the country.
- Winter (December to February): This is the best time for a beach getaway, as temperatures are cooler and perfect for enjoying Oman's coastal beauty.
- Summer (June to September): While it's hot, Oman's coastal areas like Salalah benefit from the monsoon season, making it lush and green.

QATAR LUXURY MEET TRADITION

Luxury, adventure, and tradition wrapped in one unforgettable destination

Food Scene (Savor the Flavors of Qatar)

- Machboos: This mouthwatering, spiced rice dish with tender meat (usually chicken, lamb, or fish) is Qatar’s national comfort food. Think of it as the ultimate fusion of flavors—rich, aromatic, and totally unforgettable.
- Saloonna: A hearty Qatari stew, brimming with vegetables, meat, and spices. It’s like a warm hug in a bowl—perfect for those days when you need some comfort food.
- Balaleet: Don’t let the sweet-sounding name fool you—this dish mixes sweet vermicelli with eggs and spices, making for a truly unique, Qatari breakfast.
- Luqaimat: Fried dough balls coated in date syrup—crispy, sweet, and the perfect little bite of Qatari sweetness.
- Dates and Arabic Coffee: Whether you’re visiting a souk or spending time with a local family, you’ll find dates and Arabic coffee (Gahwa) as a perfect pairing for every moment. It’s the taste of hospitality and tradition, served in every cup!

Things to Do (Unleash Your Inner Explorer)

- The Museum of Islamic Art: Get ready to be wowed! This iconic museum is a masterpiece itself, offering an art collection that spans over 1,400 years of history. The architecture and the exhibits will leave you speechless.
- Souq Waqif: Step into a world of history, culture, and vibrant colors. From spices to perfumes, handmade crafts to traditional garments, this market will transport you to another time. Don’t forget to haggle like a pro!
- Doha Corniche: You haven’t seen Doha until you’ve walked along the Corniche, where the skyline meets the sea. It’s perfect for a scenic stroll, a boat ride, or just sitting back and watching the world go by.
- Desert Safari: Feeling adventurous? Take a thrilling dune-bashing ride in the desert and then chill out at a Bedouin-style camp with a traditional meal under the stars. This is the stuff of movie scenes!
- Katara Cultural Village: It’s the heartbeat of Doha’s art scene. Whether you’re here for a concert, exhibition, or to just soak in the vibrant atmosphere, Katara will captivate your creativity.
- The Pearl-Qatar: Talk about luxury living! This man-made island is home to upscale boutiques, high-end restaurants, and jaw-dropping views. Perfect for a leisurely day of indulgence.
- Aqua Park: Looking for some family fun? Qatar’s largest water park is perfect for thrill-seekers of all ages. Whether you’re riding the waves or relaxing in a lazy river, it’s a splashin’ good time

Shopping (Where Style Meets Tradition)

What to Buy:

- Sweets & Spices: Head to the souks and stock up on aromatic spices, saffron, and traditional Arabic sweets that will add a whole new level of flavor to your kitchen.
- Pearls & Jewelry: Qatar’s history as a pearl diving nation means you’ll find the most stunning jewelry here, with pieces that blend tradition and luxury.
- Oud & Perfumes: Get your hands on rich, exotic oud perfumes, a fragrance you can’t find anywhere else. It’s the perfect reminder of Qatar’s timeless elegance.
- Traditional Textiles: From shawls to scarves, handmade textiles in rich colors and patterns will make a gorgeous souvenir from your trip.
- Handmade Pottery: Beautifully crafted, traditional Qatari pottery is perfect for decorating your home or gifting to someone special.

Where to Shop:

- Villaggio Mall: For high-end shopping in a setting that will make you feel like you’re in Venice (minus the canals). Luxurious brands, a cinema, and a massive indoor gondola ride—this mall has it all!
- Souq Waqif: This historic marketplace is the place for all things authentic. Find antiques, spices, textiles, and everything in between.
- Doha Festival City: From international luxury brands to home goods, this is one of Qatar’s largest shopping malls—and it’s full of surprises!
- The Gate Mall: A sleek, modern mall featuring fashion-forward brands and an ultra-stylish atmosphere.

EXTRA SPRINKLES

- A
- The FIFA World Cup 2022: Qatar hosted the first-ever winter World Cup, where the world's best teams came together to play in the heart of the desert!
 - Qatar's Art Scene: Qatar is known for its booming art scene, with festivals, galleries, and installations that combine contemporary art with traditional cultural themes.
 - The Dune Buggy Culture: Dune bashing isn't just a thrill—it's a sport in Qatar! Rent a buggy and zoom across the sand dunes like a true desert explorer.
 - The World's First 7-Star Hotel: Qatar is home to the luxurious Burj Al Arab, the world's first 7-star hotel. Just stepping inside is an experience!
 - High-Flying Falconry: Falconry is not only a sport but a way of life in Qatar. You can even see these majestic birds being trained in the desert!

Logistics (The Need-to-Know Stuff)

- Currency: Qatari Riyal (QAR). Approx. 1 USD = 3.64 QAR.
- Driving Rules: Drive on the right. Public transport is great in Doha, but if you're planning to explore more, renting a car is ideal.
- Self-Driving: Renting a car is straightforward with an International Driving Permit (IDP). Be sure to familiarize yourself with local traffic laws.
- Who Can Drive: Visitors from countries like the U.S., Canada, and most European countries can drive with an IDP. Check requirements before you travel.
- Credit Cards & ATMs: Credit cards (Visa, MasterCard) are widely accepted in Qatar. ATMs are plentiful, and many places accept mobile payments.
- Time Zone: Arabian Standard Time (AST), UTC +3.
- Dialing Code: +974.

Ready to experience Qatar like never before?

From the dazzling museums to the thrilling desert safaris, Holidayz Hub is here to make your journey unforgettable. Whether you're soaking in the rich culture or shopping for treasures in the souks, Holidayz Hub will guide you to the best of Qatar. Pack your bags, the adventure of a lifetime is waiting for you—let us take care of the rest!

Best Time to Visit

- Winter (November to March): The weather is perfect—mild, sunny days make this the prime season to explore Qatar's desert and coastal attractions.
- Spring (April to May): For warm but not scorching temperatures, making it ideal for sightseeing and outdoor adventures.
- Summer (June to August): While it's hot, summer is festival season in Qatar! It's the time for exciting events, but be prepared for the heat and check out air-conditioned indoor activities.
- Autumn (September to October): The temperature starts to cool, making it a great time to enjoy Qatar's outdoor experiences, beaches, and parks.

UAE WHERE LUXURY MEETS INNOVATION

Luxury, innovation, and timeless traditions wrapped in one epic journey

Food Scene (Taste the Flavors of the Emirates)

- Shawarma: The UAE’s beloved street food—juicy, spiced chicken or beef wrapped in pita and served with garlic sauce, tomatoes, and pickles. A perfect, delicious snack while you explore the city!
- Al Harees: A traditional Emirati dish made with wheat, meat, and a dash of salt, this hearty, comforting food is perfect for family feasts and festive occasions.
- Luqaimat: Fried dough balls drenched in syrup and sprinkled with sesame seeds. This sweet treat is perfect for satisfying your dessert cravings after a savory meal!
- Mandi: A delicious spiced rice dish with lamb, chicken, or fish, often served during gatherings or special occasions—rich in flavor and cultural significance.
- Arabic Coffee & Dates: Every visit to the UAE should start (or end) with a cup of fragrant Arabic coffee paired with sweet dates. It’s the epitome of Emirati hospitality.

Things to Do (Unleash Your Adventurous Spirit)

- Burj Khalifa: Take your Dubai adventure to new heights with a visit to the world's tallest building. The 360-degree view from the top is worth every second of the ride up!
- Desert Safari: Dune bashing in the golden sands is an absolute must-do! But the real magic happens when you experience the traditional Bedouin camp—complete with camel rides, henna tattoos, and a traditional feast under the stars.
- Palm Jumeirah: One of the most iconic landmarks in the world, this man-made island offers luxurious resorts, fine dining, and stunning beaches.
- Ferrari World: For the thrill-seeker in you, head to Ferrari World in Abu Dhabi. Experience the world’s fastest roller coaster, along with high-speed go-karting and rides fit for every adrenaline junkie.
- Dubai Mall: From shopping to ice skating to the breathtaking Dubai Aquarium, there’s never a dull moment at the world’s largest shopping mall. And let’s not forget the spectacular Dubai Fountain show right outside.
- Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque: Visit this architectural wonder in Abu Dhabi to be awestruck by its grandiosity, intricate designs, and serene beauty. It’s one of the largest mosques in the world and an absolute must-see.
- Yas Island: This entertainment hub in Abu Dhabi offers everything from waterparks to F1 races to live shows and world-class shopping.

Shopping (Shop ‘til You Drop in the UAE)

What to Buy:

- Gold Jewelry: Dubai is famous for its gold, and the Gold Souk is a must-visit to shop for exquisite pieces that are both affordable and luxurious.
- Oud Perfumes: Known for its rich, aromatic fragrance, oud is the heart of Arabic perfumery. You’ll find some of the world’s best perfume shops in the UAE.
- Traditional Fabrics: From luxury scarves to intricate shawls, the UAE offers gorgeous traditional textiles that make for perfect souvenirs.
- Dates & Sweets: Stock up on premium dates, chocolates, and other sweets. Don’t miss the famous Camel Milk Chocolate—it’s a true taste of the UAE.

Where to Shop:

- The Dubai Mall: More than just a shopping center, it’s a haven for luxury shopping. You’ll find high-end brands, chic boutiques, and a variety of entertainment options.
- Mall of the Emirates: A shopping experience like no other, with an indoor ski slope and a wide range of global brands to explore.
- Gold Souk (Dubai): For a true taste of Dubai’s rich trade history, visit the Gold Souk and discover a dazzling array of gold and jewelry.
- Souk Madinat Jumeirah (Dubai): A blend of traditional shopping with modern flair, this souk offers everything from art galleries to exclusive boutiques and even a beautiful view of the waterways.
- Al Wahda Mall (Abu Dhabi): A great shopping spot in Abu Dhabi that offers a variety of global brands and eateries in a stylish setting.

EXTRA SPRINKLES

- A
- Fast Cars: The UAE is all about speed—whether it's the world's fastest roller coaster, luxury cars, or the F1 races, everything here runs at full throttle!
 - World's Tallest Buildings: Dubai is home to not just the Burj Khalifa, but also an entire skyline of towering architectural wonders.
 - The Camel Race: The UAE's traditional sport, camel racing, is a must-see experience. These majestic animals race at incredible speeds, with robotic jockeys in the saddle!
 - Dubai's Miracle Garden: Get lost in a breathtaking floral wonderland, home to over 50 million flowers in every shape, color, and design imaginable.
 - Tipping Culture: Tipping isn't just appreciated in the UAE—it's expected in many service-based jobs. So, bring some extra cash to show your gratitude!

Logistics (What You Need to Know)

- Currency: UAE Dirham (AED). Approx. 1 USD = 3.67 AED.
- Driving Rules: Drive on the right. Be mindful of speed limits and strict traffic regulations—police are everywhere.
- Self-Driving: Yes, self-driving is allowed in the UAE, but if you're planning to rent a car, make sure you have an International Driving Permit (IDP).
- Who Can Drive: Visitors from most countries can drive with an IDP in the UAE.
- Credit Cards & ATMs: Widely accepted—Visa, MasterCard, and American Express. ATMs are also easily available in every corner of the city.
- Time Zone: Gulf Standard Time (GST), UTC +4.
- Dialing Code: +971.

Ready to experience all the splendor and adventure the UAE has to offer?

Whether you're heading to Dubai or Abu Dhabi, Holidayz Hub has everything you need to craft the perfect journey. From adrenaline-pumping desert safaris to lounging at luxurious resorts, Holidayz Hub ensures you get the most out of your UAE trip. Let us handle the details—your unforgettable vacation starts here!

Best Time to Visit

- Winter (November to March): The best time to visit—perfect temperatures for outdoor activities, desert safaris, and sightseeing.
- Spring (April to May): Mild temperatures and fewer crowds make spring ideal for those who want to explore the UAE at a more relaxed pace.
- Summer (June to August): It's hot! But the indoors are air-conditioned to perfection, so it's a great time for shopping, indoor entertainment, and luxurious experiences.
- Autumn (September to October): As temperatures begin to cool, it's a good time to explore the UAE's culture, architecture, and outdoor adventures.

